$$\frac{\text{number of recent sales in the tax jurisdiction(s)}}{\text{total number of taxable properties}}$$ number of recent sales in the tax jurisdiction(s) in each expected use category for the three most recent years for which data are available total number of taxable properties in the tax jurisdiction(s) in the expected use category for the most recent year for which data are available